

The patient complains of redness, burning, and foreign body sensation in the right eye. The complaints appeared suddenly. The examination revealed: visual acuity of the right and left eyes - 1.0. In the right eye - conjunctival hyperemia and edema, superficial injection. Purulent discharge from the conjunctiva. The cornea is clear, iris color and pattern are unchanged, and brisk pupillary light reflex. What is the diagnosis?

(TOPIC 7. Diseases of the conjunctiva)

TOPIC 7. Diseases of the conjunctiva

The patient complains of redness, burning, and foreign body sensation in the right eye. The complaints appeared suddenly. The examination revealed: visual acuity of the right and left eyes - 1.0. In the right eye - conjunctival hyperemia and edema, superficial injection. Purulent discharge from the conjunctiva. The cornea is clear, iris color and pattern are unchanged, and and brisk pupillary light reflex. What is the diagnosis?

Acute dacryocystitis

Acute attack of glaucoma

- Acute conjunctivitis
- Acute iridocyclitis
- Corneal foreign body

• Key words. *

TOPIC 7. Diseases of the conjunctiva

The patient complains of redness, burning, and foreign body sensation in the right eye. The complaints appeared suddenly. The examination revealed: visual acuity of the right and left eyes - 1.0. In the right eye - conjunctival hyperemia and edema, superficial injection. Purulent discharge from the conjunctiva. The cornea is clear, iris color and pattern are unchanged, and and brisk pupillary light reflex. What is the diagnosis?

Acute dacryocystitis

Acute attack of glaucoma

Acute conjunctivitis

Acute iridocyclitis

Corneal foreign body